PUBLIC SPEAKING COMPETITION

COMPETITION TYPE: Individual — Open to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: Middle School, High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity, Collegiate

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard II: Learning About Students
- Standard VII: Engaging in Reflective Practice

Contest Purpose

Self-composure, confidence, and the ability to clearly articulate and communicate information are valuable skills for all educators. The Public Speaking Competition is designed to highlight students who demonstrate these qualities by combining thoughtful preparation and confident delivery into an interesting presentation on a current education topic.

Students participating in this competition will compose and deliver a speech of approximately 400 to 600 words (three to five minutes when spoken aloud) on the assigned topic. Contestants will be delivering their speech in front of on-site judges.

Assigned Topic

The topic for the 2023 Public Speaking Competition: Teacher shortage crisis

Even before the pandemic, the teaching profession faced a wave of teacher retirements. The pandemic and the culture wars have made the looming teacher shortage worse. According to a survey of teachers by the EdWeek Research Center and commissioned by Merrimack College, the results “suggest a deep disillusionment of many teachers who feel overworked, underpaid, and under-appreciated, with potential implications for a once-in-a-generation shift in the teaching profession.” The teachers in the survey cite low pay and lack of control over their schedules as major factors in their job dissatisfaction. Another factor: “Teachers’ growing perception that the general public does not understand or appreciate their work,” according to the survey results.

What can education leaders do to stem the tide of teachers leaving the classroom? What strategies would help school districts attract new teachers to the profession?
